Hi Joel,

I wanted to congratulate you on a successful event! I think we will do very well with it! I was wondering if you provide the vendors with a list of all brides with their name, address, phone number or email? If you have that available and are willing to pass that along it would be great. You can email it to me or send it just let me know.

I was also interested in being a vendor in your next bridal show. Please email me with a vendor form. Also if interested we would provide the makeup for some of the models if you like.

Also do you have the name of the party you gave my information to I would like to send them some literature on the services we offer.

Thanks you,

Just wanted to pass along a reminder about the bridal show for Tuesday night.
As of 6 AM today, this is what the pre-registration count looks like.

50 Brides pre-registered.

As we all know, not all brides show up and we may also have walk-ins.

You can setup anytime after 4:30 PM on Tuesday. And please, after unloading, park at the far end of the parking lot.

Joel
